Election: Julie volunteered to be chair one more year. Motion by Jennifer, second by Barb. Approved.

Current business:

RDA implementation. Nothing currently. Kathy updated macros for RDA fields on training page.

Sierra issues.

- Headings reports are now under control and being maintained. Julie thanked committee members for their help with this process.
- Rental DVD's (Kathy and Deb) some DVD's are clearly marked as "rental" editions when they have special features. If these "rental" editions have the same content as the "regular version" then they should be added to that bib record. Qualify the upc with rental edition. Put in a 500-note saying that this rental has the same special features as the regular edition. Will revisit next meeting to see if this is a new trend.

MARC tags. OLAC video games genre headings. These headings have |20LACVGGT. Keep these headings if they verify. Marcive will provide updates and authority records for these headings. Julie and Jenny noted that they have not seen this on many bib records yet. Just wanted everyone to be aware.

Subject/Genre headings. Want to bring these to every one's attention. These include: Subterranean fiction, Hunting fiction, Bible comics, Graphic novel adaptations, Martial arts fiction, Campus fiction, Eco fiction, Sea fiction, Forensic fiction, Superhero fiction, Werewolf fiction, Vampire fiction, Zombie fiction, LGBTQIA fiction as a local genre heading. This can only be used if the bib has subject headings with valid headings themes or main characters. Julie will flip 650 0 Prison fiction to a genre heading.

New scopes/Collection limits (Lori). Adult and YA materials will have a scope. Lori noted that items can be in more than 1 scope. Jennifer had a few questions about the accuracy of the scopes. Lori will check on this. Email Lori in the next month if you have any new scope ideas to add.

Inventory/cleanup best practices

- New Richmond run two reports during inventory then looks at the lists in Global Update to find any unusual data that should be cleaned up.

Next meeting date: March 19th, 2019 10:00 am at IFLS

Meeting adjourned 12:31 pm

Minutes respectfully submitted, Bridget Krejci - IFLS
