- c. An edition statement and a 340 note will be added to the record.
- d. Larger print will use the format “book”.
- e. For older, larger-print books not on a larger-print record, it is asked that owning libraries let CABS know so that records can be created for these items.

New Business:

X. Procedure for Resources generated by Artificial Intelligence (AI) from RSCD meeting:

The committee recommends that the following be added to the procedure for suspected AI-created works:

- Catalogers will add a 500 note: Possible AI-generated content. If the item is confirmed to be AI-generated, the note will be updated to reflect that by removing the word possible.
- Brief records will be created for these items, as most lack data that can be easily obtained for a full record.
- The first to come across possible AI-content will be the cataloger. When this happens, the cataloger will return the item to the selector to determine AI-generated potential and if they wish to include it in the library’s collection.
- Labeling items, determining the use of AI-content, is a judgment call. No consensus was reached regarding the labeling of materials at this time.
- Lynn Gates, with assistance if needed from Lori Roholt, will craft a statement to be submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration in this procedure.

Motion made by Meagan B.; seconded by Amy G. Motion passed unanimously.

XI. Easy Chapter vs Early Chapter Books:

- a. The committee recommends that Easy chapter books be changed to Early chapter books. Genre headings and updates to the online catalogue will be made by IFLS staff.

Recommendation passed by consensus

XII. When should a serial have a serial record?

- a. If the title comes out regularly (annually, biannually, or every 4 or 5 years), it should be considered a serial and catalogued as such.
- b. Literary fiction, such as short stories, that requires a 505 field, is an exception to this policy.

XIII. Brief iPAge records

- a. Ingram does not have the robust records that B&T had
- b. It is fine to wait until the item is in hand to finish the Bib record

XIV. 2026 meeting dates:

- a. It was decided to have the meetings quarterly on a set schedule
- b. The tentative schedule, pending the new member's schedules, is the first Monday of each quarter, beginning with March 2, 2026.

Meeting adjourned at 11:37 a.m.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Meagan Bennett, Bloomer.
