

MORE Executive Committee meeting information

December 5, 2025

1. Discussion and possible action on updated MORE Privacy Policy

At their November 17 meeting, MORE Operations Committee recommended revising the MORE Privacy Policy and adding the currently-separate Purging Last Patron Information policy into the Privacy Policy:

DRAFT: MORE Privacy Policy

Approved February 5, 2003; draft updates December 2025

The MORE ~~Library Automation~~ Consortium recognizes both an ethical and a legal requirement to protect the privacy of library users' records. Ethical standards for the library profession and Wisconsin State Statute require that the privacy of customer records be maintained.

The MORE Consortium will take these actions to protect library users' privacy:

- No records of library use or other customer information in any format or on any library platform will be made available to anyone, except in the course of necessary library business
- Patron circulation records will only be divulged ~~in response to a court order~~, as per state statute or federal law, or with the written permission of the individual customer.
- Last patron information, as stored in item records, will be purged every three months.

The MORE Consortium also makes these recommendations to member libraries:

- All member libraries should adopt a local policy regarding privacy of library records that adheres to state statute, federal law, applicable court cases and follow privacy best practices
- All member libraries train library staff to correctly handle requests for patron information (legally, and according to library policy).
